About

In our last newsletter we highlighted a few non-profit worksites. This time around, we are showcasing private worksites. Explore job opportunities and find your career of interest while making money and gaining valuable experience that will last a lifetime. Reach out to an Employment Counselor if you are interested in exploring different jobs. Our team of counselors ensure that you have as much support as you can to be successful! And remember to mention or refer the Intern & Earn program to others! Check out more of our videos below!
